

REDUCTION PRICES CONTINUE!

Our Reduction sale having proved very successful, we have concluded to continue the reduced prices until

FEBRUARY 10.

We have proven to our customers that an HONEST REDUCTION is being made in Marion, and they are convinced that money is made by buying goods now for Spring and Summer wear.

This cut includes everything in our stock, bought in bills of one dollar and upwards.

We are making special inducements in Muslins, also selling Cloaks and Winter Goods without regard to their original cost.

This sale will positively close February 10th.

N. S. F. L. 1898.

—Jack Watters spent Sunday in Columbus.

—All sizes of pictures from cabinet to life, at Moore's.

—Miss Maime Denny is visiting among her friends in Mt. Vernon.

—Miss Emma Thomas visited over Sunday in Cleveland with her friends.

—D. Yake leaves for New York Tuesday to purchase a spring stock of dry goods.

—Col. John Hood is confined to his bed with a severe attack of rheumatism and a bad cold.

—Derry Yeager has quit the post-office and will leave for Philadelphia Tuesday night, to join his mother.

—Hon. B. G. Young was home over Sunday. Mr. Young thinks the outlook favorable to the passage of his mortgage bill.

—All sizes and kinds of both hard and soft coals can be had at L. B. Gurley's, No. 16 north East street. Call on him.

—The County Commissioners were in regular monthly session today, the allowance of bills being their more particular business.

—James Renfrew has returned to his home in Belle Centre, O., after a week's visit at the home of his patients on north West street.

—A special cut of Free officials passed over the C. and A. road today, looking up the property with the view of buying it when the fare is made.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson last Thursday, and Mr. Thompson has been liberally settling up cigars at the Lee Factory, ever since.

—Fr. J. Peters has determined to enter the ministry, and has begun study at home preparatory to entering school for that calling.

—The Night Owls will hold an extra session on Thursday night of this week, at Music Hall. The Mainfield Orchestra will be present, and a happy time is anticipated.

—Only desirable lot left on west Center street for sale at $1000 cash.

CHASE & HUNTER.

—If you have pictures to enlarge call and get Moore's prices.

—Little Nuggit is coming Tuesday night the latest show on earth.

—Daisy's grocery is headquarters for choice butter and eggs.

—Clare Welch was up from Columbus Sunday, greeting his numerous friends.

—Mrs. A. C. Court and Miss Ada LePeyer spent Sunday in South Town, the guests of relatives and friends.

—About 100, including the Star band, came up from Prospect today to attend the funeral of John Diebold.

—Mrs. Sarah A. Rubens, of Grand town ship, returned to her home last Saturday after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. C. Campbell.

—Fifteen numbers were taken into the M. E. Church on probation Friday night. This makes a total of thirty-nine for this conference year, which began last September.

—A "Trip to China" will be given at the Free Baptist Church Wednesday evening, Feb. 10th, by three Chinese Chinamen who are capable of giving a true view of oriental life.

—Mrs. Hatch having removed her boarding house from opposite City Hall to the Shipp property, first house east of Albright Church, on east South street, now has room for three or four more good boarders.

—Gahon will have seventy-five electric street cars when her new plant is put in operation. Here is a point wherein Gahon excels us, but when our Vapor Light contract expires the arrangement will doubtless be different.

—Mr. W. B. Stoddard, agent of the Ohio State Christian Association, will deliver a lecture Tuesday evening, February 5th, at the Evangelical Lutheran church, corner Canal and East streets, on the subject of "Lodge and Church." Lecture free. All are cordially invited.

—Mrs. T. P. Watkins very enjoyably entertained a party of friends Saturday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Currier, of Xenia. The guests were so pleasantly received and made so generously welcome that anything else than a delightful evening was utterly impossible.

—A novel plan for raising money has been resorted to by a church at Mount, Mich. A box is placed in the church and the members on their birthday drop as many cents into the box as they are old. The most serious drawback to its success has developed in the fact that after a certain period of years large numbers of married females content themselves with dropping quarters in the box.

—In Missouri, hogging is a crime, but in Indiana it is a business. The following scale of prices: Girls under 15, 25 cents; each pig of two months, 10 cents; 16 to 24, 10 cents; 25 to 30, 10 cents; school of nine months, 25 cents; widows according to looks from 10 cents to 25 cents; old mares, 3 cents; apples or two for a nickel, and no limit to time. Ministers are not charged. Editors pay in advertisements, but are not allowed to participate until everybody else is done.

—A selected number of musical compositions, including a new symphony, will be given at the Free Baptist Church, corner Canal and East streets, on the subject of "Lodge and Church." Lecture free. All are cordially invited.

OF THE

Launch Till You Cry.

"Little Nuggit" is a play without a suggestion of pathos, but one full of tears from beginning to end. This may seem paradoxical, but the tears are those of laughter and merriment at the highest pressure. The author wrote to create laughter only, and he has succeeded admirably. Haylin's never contained more delighted audiences than yesterday. At the instance the business was good. In the evening the house was packed to the walls. No doubt it will continue to be so long as "Nuggit" holds the boards. The principal character, "Barney O'Grady," to the mind of the writer, gives more comical delineation of the "Exaggerated Irishman" than Pat Kearney. "Barney" has a penchant for turning out at the most unexpected times and in such an unexpected way, as to bring down the house at each appearance. His courtship of the wealthy widow, "Mrs. Simpson," is the change of fun, and the audience fairly rent at its delight in jobs. "Barney" gained the hand that wanted them two hundred acres. The cut is above the average for such plays. "Little Nuggit" doesn't pretend to be true to nature or edited with a patch of realism, but it goes further and better than any other play in the city, and that is what the average theatre-goer wants.
